PRINCIPAL’S MESSAGE
Dear Parents and Guardians
Thank you to those who attended last week’s family BBQ at school. It was enjoyable and the P&C and school staff are keen to do it again later in the year. We will look to organize some activities for the students through, because as much as they enjoyed free activity on the courts, it was a bit nerve racking for adults watching.

Next week’s Newsletter will be accompanied by interview times for Parent/Teacher/student goal setting interviews for years 1 to 7. Can I encourage all parents to participate in this to get an exact idea of where your student is heading and how we are looking at improving his/her performance in Reading and Numeracy in particular.

The P&C AGM is on next Monday evening at 6pm. Please attend if you are able to do so. Positions will be filled for the 2014 school year, and the last year of having our year 7 students with us in the school.

The student body in 2014 will be known at the Student Voice. Leader of this group is Tristan Price, Secretary is Lachlan Phylis. Student Captains are active members of this group as well. It should be a vibrant student organisation with elected reps from years 4 and 5. One of the first events Student Voice will be supporting is Year 6 student Lily in her efforts to fundraise to support research into Leukaemia in the Shave for a Cure campaign. Lily will be dying her hair blue to match her Bara-mundi colours.

This Thursday the CQU Careers trailer will be in the school grounds and will give a career choices presentation for the year 6/7.

Kind Regards
Pam Liddell

YEAR 4 STORIES
The crazy people  By Kiera-Lee Watson Year 4
One night Mr and Mrs Twit were getting ready for bed. Mr Twit put on underwear and when he wasn’t expecting it, Mr Twit put worms in his underwear. “Yuck! What are you doing silly woman?” said Mr Twit. Mrs Twit rolled on the floor laughing.
After that, Mrs Twit put frogs in her bed, and she screamed. Mr Twit had another trick to pull on Mrs Twit. He had some bees with hummingbird’s wings which were very vicious.
He shook the glass with the bees in it all over Mrs Twit. She was allergic to bees and she ran around the house so many times. She slowed down and the bees stung her. Mrs Twit got some zanos and shoved Mr Twit’sicky, mucky beard off. He screamed like a baby girl.
After Mr Twit got his beard shaved off, Mrs Twit dyed her hair red and she had a new style cut. Mr Twit had a haircut and dyed his hair black that he loved so much. He screamed “You”. They got nicer and let the frogs free.

When the Animals Sold Mr and Mrs Twit’s House
By Lana Browne 2014
Early one morning before the sun came out Mr Twit stole two cute puppies and two adorable kittens. In the afternoon Mr Twit gave Mrs Twit the cute puppies. Mrs Twit blushed bright red and smiled sweetly, but not very long in the end she shouted “GIVE ME MY PUPPIES!” She snatched the puppies from Mr Twit.
Mr Twit was so surprised and asked “Where are your manners? It’s time to choose the name for your pets.”
“You can be Richel and you are Richet the dog” said Mrs Twit. Mr Twit called his kittens Percy and Roary.
The next day the animals went to the dump. Mr and Mrs Twit saw them 3 minutes later and Mr and Mrs Twit were at the dump and saw the dogs and cats at the top of the mountain of rubbish. The cats and dogs had no trouble at all because they were light. But Mr and Mrs Twit were too heavy and fell in.
The cats and dogs ran home and sold the house for fifty dollars. Five days went by still no one came but the next day a small family came and the woman asked, “Can we buy the house please?”
At the same time Mr and Mrs Twit got out of the pile of rubbish and stumped home. The family saw Mr Twit and started laughing because Mr Twit had a sticky toilet bowl stuck on his bottom. Mr Twit was red with rage, but the family got the keys and went away holding their noses. Mr and Mrs Twit screamed, “GIVE ME MY HOUSE!” They stomped away and were never seen again.
