PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Parents and Guardians

Our Year 5 students stood up well to the rigors of conducting the Remembrance Day Ceremony at our school today. Several of the students were involved and they put great effort into doing this important Ceremony to a high standard. Mrs Reid has made another wonderful wreath to be placed in our Memorial Garden and the students and staff all appreciate this.

We are starting to look at our Year 5 students with a view to selecting our school leaders for 2015 and events like today give them the opportunity to see how it feels to stand up and take responsibility for an event like this. Year 5 will also conduct the Assembly tomorrow.

The Year 6/7 headed off for Brisbane this morning. This is the last traditional Year 7 trip to Brisbane and the Year 6 shared in the experience to end their years at primary school as well. Chappie Tanya and Damon Crook are accompanying Mr Byrnes and Mrs Ramm on this trip. It was good news to hear that Jayden Doorley's family has grown by one overnight. Congratulations and great timing there.

All were excited and a little apprehensive this morning as they left for what is an important and unique time in Brisbane's history. The Year 6/7 will acknowledge Remembrance Day while in transit, through the broadcast ceremony on the ABC.

Our first pre Prep session was terrific. Teachers and pre Preps were equally impressed with each other. The second event takes place on Thursday afternoon, so once again all 2015 Prep enrolments are welcome.

Kind Regards
Pamela Liddell (Principal)

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC FOR 2015

The school instrumental music program is inviting students currently in Years 3, 4 and 5 to apply for enrolment for 2015. Learning an instrument has been proven to promote creativity, confidence and maturity and improve class learning. We would encourage you to consider this valuable opportunity for your student. Please ask at the office for an Invitation to Apply letter if you haven't received one (Please note: payment is not due until 2015). Applications close Friday 28 Nov. Invoices will be sent home in 2015.

ARTS COUNCIL

The final Arts Council for 2014 is being held on Monday 17 November. The performance is called "No Way!". Cost is $5/per student. No Way! is an interactive dance theatre production that tackles the serious issue of bullying in a creative and vibrant way. Using moveable puzzle pieces to reveal questions and scenarios about bullying, the two dancers will draw students into the heart of the bullying problem and help them to discover a solution. Set to a dynamic soundtrack of music, student interviews and facts from the Bullying, No Way! Campaign. No Way! reflects students' experiences with bullying, inspiring them to take action and make positive changes.

SCHOLASTIC CHRISTMAS BOOK FAIR

DUKE OF EDINBURGH'S 50TH ANNIVERSARY
 Proud to deliver THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH'S INTERNATIONAL AWARD
 Last Wednesday, Trevor Standfast was invited to attend Churchie College with a team of young people who have participated in the Duke of Edinburgh Program. Most of these young people were past Burnett Head's students. Trevor dedicates quite a lot of his time to preparing young people for this award, and it is excellent to see him acknowledged for his contributions as a volunteer.
