

MOUSE JOKES FROM YEAR 4

- “Can you buy me a mouse please, this one is not working?” my sister asked. I went out and bought a real mouse for her. She yelled, “Get the mouse out of here, I wanted one for my computer!”

- My friend Lily wanted a mouse from the pet shop but they were forty dollars. So we got here a two dollar computer mouse instead.
- My friend was at her desk and she asked me to buy a mouse. So I went to the pet shop and bought her a lovely mouse. She wasn't happy when I got home, she wanted a computer mouse.

- I wanted a computer mouse but it was fifty dollars. That was too high. So I caught a mouse from the shed and plugged its tail into the computer.

A NEWSLETTER LINKING BURNETT HEADS PRIMARY SCHOOL COMMUNITY PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Parents and Guardians,
Please find with this Newsletter the timetable for 3 way parent/student/teacher interviews. It is important for students and parents to attend these discussions with teachers. If the times available are not suitable, please advise the class teacher to find another time.

Teachers are completing the end of term assessment of learning and we are moving into a few days of special activity to complete the term. Today the student leaders will accompany me to the Civic Centre for the Leaders meet Leaders luncheon. During this visit to the Civic Centre, the students will listen to several of the Bundaberg City Councillors address them on Leadership from the perspective of being an elected leader. They will mix with many other student leaders from the district and meet again with Mayor Mal Forman. Hopefully our local Councillor, Danny Rowland, will also be there.

Wednesday will see our special Assembly, with the final Bronze certificates for this term being handed out. This coincides with the AFL Gala Day for boys, but it is hoped they will return in time to attend.

Thursday is the Bronze Rewards Day which is the greatly enjoyed Wet Day. This is in the middle session, and is followed by the end of term Disco on Thursday afternoon. The theme is appropriately named Tropical/Beach, to see off a very hot term. Students must have sun safe dress for both events, with tops of arms and midriff covered. Congratulations go to all who have achieved Bronze.

Happy Easter to all.
