YEAR 3 CLASS WORK - A retell of the Lorax

From the point of view of the Bar-ba-loots.

By Trinnety Glover

In a beautiful place I was living in a burrow under the Truffula trees. My friends mostly come to visit. One day the once-ler came. He met the Lorax. He cut down the trees here with a super-axe-hack. I think he did know everyone was starving and the pond was polluted and the sky was all smoggy. This is why we had to leave. The Lorax said to us to leave the beautiful place where all of our homes were. Later on we found another place.

The Once-ler realised no more Trufflers. The Once-ler gave a bag of seed to grow more Trufflers. Soon I was on a walk and guss what I found - our Truffler home. I ran to meet the Lorax and told him. The Lorax made a big announcement and everone was so happy. All of us packed up and all went home. All of us packed up and went home.

“The Once-ler will never be back I hope!”

A retell of The Lorax from the point of view of the Swomee Swans.

Blade Lucas

It was the bestest place in the world with great colour and the most kind species on the planet but it's gong. When I flew down to the Truffula Tree tufts, the softest leaves were there. There was always music that soinds nice and that music came from the Humming-Fish and they love to hum. Bar-ba-loots are so cute but they are bears that eat fruit and they are the most goodest fruit in this giant universe. One unusual day a weird wagon arrived with someone in the set. He came with sharpest axe and with a strong swing he chopped the Truffula Tree down. I followed him in the air and there was a factory. He used the tree to make a red Thneed but the Lorax popped out from the tree stump. My friends look terrified but the Lorax wasn't. He said in a calm voice he speaks for every tree and he said no one will by the disgusting thneed. This time the Lorax was wrong. A man came by with three and bought the stretchy Thneed. The Once-ler chuckled and said that will give him heaps of money! Would it really? Well it did. He called someone but he called his whole family! The factory started and made smoke and so when we went into it we couldn't find a way out. They were chopping and chopping, quicker now. We were scared. I thought my Truffula was next but it wasn't luckily. The Lorax came and knocked so so hard on the door and shouted at the Once-ler. The

Once-ler didn't care about the Lorax. The next day he was building for three hours making a super axe-hacker which chopped four trees at once! They were going four times faster now which was scary! The ponds were being filled with dirty mud so the Once-ler was going quickly making the thneeds. The Humming-Fish had to leave with blue faces and the Lomax was so cranky at the Once-ler family. The Bar-ba-loots left too because the silly Once-ler chopped the trees and the shiny fruits rotted! There I was sitting in a group of five Truffula Trees but the Once-ler family came. They chopped four trees and the last one was mine! I was shaking for hours but nothing happened but he was stalking my tree. That was the last moment I had with my Truffula Tree. We may all come back but in a very long time.

A NEWSLETTER LINKING BURNETT HEADS PRIMARY SCHOOL COMMUNITY

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE Dear Parents and Guardians,

I am feeling very privileged to be writing the newsletter as Acting Principal this week and at a time when there are so many exciting things happening and to be proud of in our school. Today we wish good luck to a great group of students who are attending the "Future Leaders Eco Challenge" at Moore Park with Mr Standfast. Watch out for the full story in next week's newsletter. We also welcome Gwenda Stanley to our school this afternoon. She will be providing an indigenous performance for our students, sharing dances, stories, artefacts and language so I am sure our students will have some great stories to tell after school today. Theatre Restaurant preparations continue with only a few weeks to go until the big performance so watch this space for information regarding tickets. We also have the Father's Day raffle, Go for Gold and our "P" themed disco all in the coming weeks so please keep your calendars up to date. As we approach the end of term remember you can support your child to Go for Gold by reminding them to pack their hat and homework each day, asking questions about school, discussing behaviour and providing them opportunities at home to practice spelling, reading and number facts.

Kind Regards,
Mr Bruce Liston
(Acting Principal)
